several days in Heppner on business the past week.

R. F. Wiglesworth and son Victor of Butter creek, were business visitors in Heppner Monday.

Mrs. Cynthia Walker of Ione was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Waters in this city.

W. K. Corson of Ione has accepted a position in the general merchandise store of Jos. Burgoyne in Lexington.

Mrs. J. S. Baldwin and two sons spent Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Reaney near Lexington.

Mrs. Melissa Marlatt returned Monday evening from an extensive visit in Idaho. Her daughter, Mrs. Levi Morgan resides in Moscow.

Miss Lera Githens, who is teaching school in the Morgan district, spent Saturday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Githens in this city.

George Perry was over from Rock creek this week joshing with Heppner friends. That continued spell of rheumatism is no bar to George's joviality.

C. C. Bright, a prominent attorney of The Dalles, was a business visitor in Heppner this week. Mr. Bright is also prohibition party candidate for judge of the supreme court.

Natt Webb and wife returned to their Walla Walla home Wednesday after spending several days visiting at the home of their son Paul Webb on his ranch south of this city.

Ed and Earnest Clark were duck hunting on lower Willow creek last Sunday. They had poor success this day, although a week ago they returned home with the limit.

Oscar Wakefield, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wakefield of Heppner Flat, is in the hospital recovering from injuries he sustained some time ago when he was kicked by a horse.

Dr. McMurdo was called to Lexington Saturday to attend Mrs. Sadie Palmer, who sustained severe cuts on the head when the team she was driving became scared and overturned the buggy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph I. Thompson of Portland are spending several days in Heppner, where Mr. Thompson has property interests. Mr. Thompson is much pleased with the prosperous conditions now existing in Morrow county.

J. L. Wilkins returned Friday evening from Portland, where he had spent several days transacting business. Mr. Wilkins' brother, M. O.
Wilkins, was recently elected president-manager of the newly formed Portland Auto Dealers Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nash are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Nash's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Walbridge of Heppner. They were married at the old Raley hotel in this city in 1878 and rode here on a stage driven by John Bailey, Jr.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Fred Coxen of Butter creek was thrown from a wagon last Thursday and received serious injuries to his back. The injury caused temporary paralysis of the legs and for a while Mr. Coxen could not walk. We are glad to be able to state that his condition is improving.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E.
Straight on Butter creek at 9:30 Sunday morning, John Sprouls and Amy D. Crawford were united in marriage. Rev. R. H. Lewelling officiating. Through the motor car Rev. Lewelling was able to be back in the city for his 11 o'clock service.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. French of Gurdane motored over to Heppner Tuesday. Mr. French is a prominent stockman of that section and an ardent supporter of Chas. E. Hughes.
However politics is well divided in the family, Mrs. French being a supporter of President Wilson. They paid the Gazette-Times office a pleasant call while in the city.

W. E. Brown, Black Horse farmer, was in the city Wednesday looking for men to haul wheat. Mr. Brown is suffering at the present time from some poisonous infection on both his hands and is unable to do much ranch work. He raised 4500 sacks of wheat this year and has sold half of it at $1.30 per bushel. Mr. Brown is of the opinion that wheat will go much higher, even higher than it is worth.

IS THIS YOUR EXPERIENCE?

Many Heppner People Are Afflicted With Annoying Kidney Ills.

Are you bothered with too frequent action of the kidneys? Are the secretions highly colored—do they contain sediment—burn and scald in voiding?
These are all signs of kidney sickness and should not be neglected. Heppner people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches and your kidneys are weak you will find no better recommended remedy.

F. M. Bayless, Heppner, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to be all that is claimed of them for lame back and kidney disorders. Of late years, I had had but very little trouble in that respect. Whenever I noticed my kidneys are in anyway out of order, I take Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon relieve me." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bayless had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Fritz Rader is over from Long creek this week.

Ben Anderson was a visitor in our city from Eight Mile Tuesday.

B. M. Shown, prominent Spray citizen, is spending a few days in Heppner.

Wilson Bayless, Rhea creek farmer, was transacting business in Heppner Wednesday.

Mrs. Walter C. Cason is spending the week in Ione, where she is visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. A. M. Slocum of Portland has been in the city the past week on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Good work horses for sale, ranging in age from five to nine years old.
See Guy Boyer or phone 27 F 32.

garage of Lexington, transacted business in Heppner for a few hours this morning.

Over Pendleton way a man who claimed to be a Wilson republican was declared by his friend to be a lying democrat.

John Scrivner, prominent farmer of Democrat Gulch, and Gene Love-gren of Hail Ridge, were business visitors in Heppner today.

Chas Devin and family were Heppner visitors from Ione Tuesday. Mr.
Devin is one of the prosperous wheat farmers of the Ione section.

Mrs. Harvie Young of Eight Mile has been under the care of a doctor in this city the past week. She is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Wanted—Man with teams to haul 3000 sacks of wheat four miles to warehouse for 6 cents per sack.
Write or phone W. E. Brown, Heppner.

A large number of Heppner high school students went to Lexington last Saturday to witness the football game there between the teams of the rival schools.

Charles Barlow has accepted a position with the Case Furniture store in this city. Mr. Barlow was formerly in the employ of the Humphreys Drug Company.

WANTED—Plowing by the acre, will contract up to 1000 acres this fall. Have catpillar plow and 10 bottom gang plow. Write F. B.
Davis, 194, E. 12th, Portland, Ore.

Frank E. Bell, who owns one of the best wheat farms in the Black Horse section, is in the city this week from Spokane, where he and Mrs.
Bell are now living.

A. W. Raglan, who recently opened a variety store in this city has been forced to seek larger quarters to accommodate his trade and has moved into the Groshen building on May street which was formerly occupied by the Palm Cafeteria.

W. A. Richardson and wife and daughter Miss Josephine and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones attended the Sprouls-Crawford wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Straight on Little Butter creek last Sunday.
The wedding dinner served by Mrs.
Straight was the feature of the occasion, according to Mr. Richardson.

Don't fail to hear Judge Stephen A. Lowell of Pendleton deliver an address upon the political questions of the day at the Opera house next Monday evening. Judge Lowell needs no introduction to the Heppner public for he has appeared here at various times in the past. He is an able orator and a thorough student of the political questions.

Dr. Turner, the well known eye specialist of Portland will be in Heppner again, Saturday, November 4th at Palace Hotel. One day only. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened, satisfaction guaranteed. Consult him. Dr. Turner will also be in Ione Thursday, November 2nd, Lexington, Friday November 3rd and Hardman, Sunday November 5th from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.
Don't forget the date. Scores of Morrow County references. A number of cases of cross eyes in your county which are living evidence of Dr. Turner's ability to straighten the eye without an operation.
